PREFACE TO THE FIFTH EDITION

Under the title "Songs of Wellesley" four editions of the popular songs of the College have been published. The editors associated with the various editions have been: Roberta H. Montgomery and Cordelia C. Nevers (first edition, 1897) Mary Caswell (editions of 1906, 1910, 1912).

The fifth edition has followed the precedent set by the earlier ones in printing only those class-, step- and crew-songs that belong to, or are sung by, the present college generation. The plates of all the editions, however, are on hand and, if copies of any songs not included in the present edition are needed, they can be furnished, if at least a month's notice is given, for a small sum.

By omitting obsolete and out-of-date songs, room has been found for new material identified through authorship and actual use with Wellesley; thus appearing for the first time are several Christmas Carols from the old French, words translated by Miss Hazard, the carol "As Joseph was a-walking," music by Miss Hazard, the carol "The Kings of the East are riding" words by Miss Katharine Lee Bates, music by Mr C. G. Hamilton and two choir processionals. For these many requests have been received. Two original solo songs, that have secured for themselves a warm student welcome, also find a place.

The Editor wishes to thank Miss Mary Caswell for her helpfulness and cooperation: without these, the present Wellesley Songbook would have been impossible.

HAMILTON C. MACDOUGALL

Billings Hall, Wellesley College, September, 1914.

PREFACE TO THE SIXTH EDITION

Added to the present edition are the competition songs for 1915, 1917's Crew Song, 1916's Marching Song, 1918's Class Song, the processional "O day of rest and gladness" and Miss Lucy A. Plympton's charming music to Sophie Jewett's "Nativity Song."

In Stone, so neatly monogrammed,
There are rooms of giant size,
The beds have slats that are most perverse
And the rugs quite blind your eyes.
The waiters dumb make plenty of noise
And the lift may lose its way;
If hoary age appeals to you
Stone is the place to stay.

3

The Lake House windows, barred so fast,
Shut out the light of day,
But this objection is o'er ruled
By the view of the "little café."
Then its height's an advantage, don't you see?
For in case of a fire or two
The third floor's only one flight from the ground,
"Safety first" is the watchword new.

4

Is this a factory that shines
With many windows' glow?
That vibrates with machinery,—
A factory? oh, no!
It is the "Quad" that was our pride
Before new College Hall;
But if the trains keep shaking it,
Our pride will have a fall!

5

Our palace carved with concrete forms,
The architects' despair,
Is sliding off from College Hill
To crush the class trees there.
The food'll be carried underground
And cooked without a fire;
Mail-chutes and life sized mirrors, oh!
What more could one desire?

6

The Hill's the part of Wellesley
To culture most addicted;
For Wood and Freeman highbrows
Cool showers are predicted.
Beyond the Hill and a mile away
From everything else is Fiske,
At the very edge of our campus
And the very end of our list.

The Cherry Tree Carol

(From the Old English)

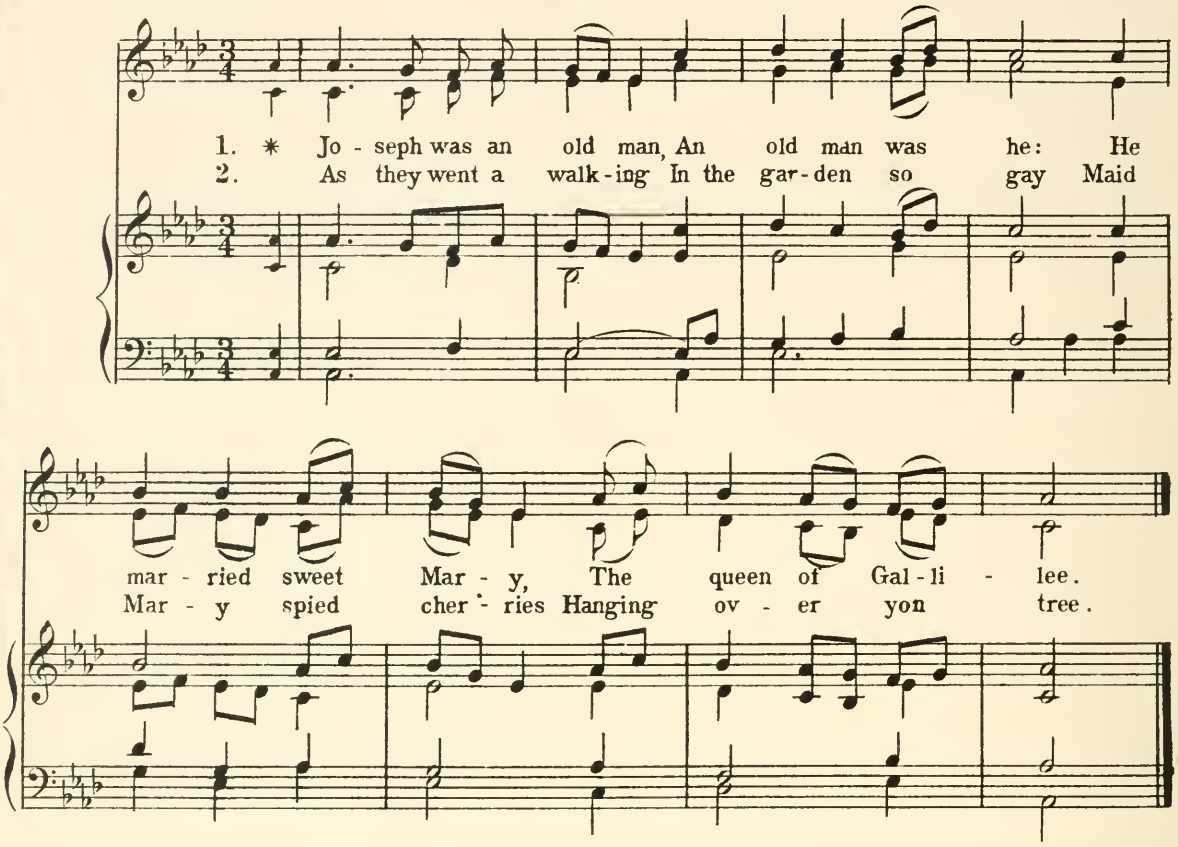
Words and Music
TRADITIONAL



3. Mary said to Joseph,
With her sweet lips so mild,
"Pluck those cherries, Joseph,
For to give to my child."

4. "O then," replied Joseph,
With words so unkind,
"I will pluck no cherries
For to give to thy child."

5. Mary said to cherry tree,
"Bow down to my knee,
That I may pluck cherries
By one, two and three."

6. The uppermost sprig then
Bow'd down to her knee;
"Thus you may see, Joseph,
These cherries are for me."

7. "O eat your cherries, Mary,
O eat your cherries now,
O eat your cherries, Mary,
That grow upon the bough."

8. As Joseph was a-walking
He heard the angels sing,
"This night shall be born
Our heavenly king."

9. He neither shall be born
In house nor in hall,
Nor in the place of paradise,
But in an ox stall.

10. He shall not be clothed
In purple nor in pall,
But all in fair linen,
As wear babies all.

11. He shall not be rocked
In silver nor in gold,
But in a wooden cradle
That rocks on the mold."

12. Mary took her baby,
She dressed him so sweet,
She laid him in a manger,
All there for to sleep.

13. As she stood over him
She heard angels sing,
"O bless our dear Saviour,
Our Heavenly King."
